Tombacco, a relatively new player in the shisha world, has made a name for itself as one of the top shisha brands in Indonesia and globally. Since its operational debut in 2021, Tombacco has demonstrated exceptional performance and gained widespread acceptance from the Indonesian community. Its impressive sales figures and recognition from the international shisha community are testaments to the quality and excellence of Tombacco's products.

Tombacco's most notable achievement is its back-to-back victories in the prestigious Hookah Battle International competition in 2022 and 2024. In a contest that drew participation from numerous renowned and global shisha brands, Tombacco showcased its superiority and proved that its product quality is on par with, if not surpassing, that of its more established competitors.

Tombacco's triumph in the Hookah Battle International not only validates the quality of its products but also underscores the brand's global recognition as a top-tier shisha brand. With this achievement, Tombacco is poised to continue its growth trajectory and expand its presence in the global shisha market.
